HELiX
BUILT FOR BUSINESS

Rose Group Int'l

Case Study: Software Dev

This client is in Toronto, Canada. Privately held by a millenial, this owner came to us with a need to effectively manage his team. He didn't "understand" why/how his team worked, and that lack of clarity became a major hurdle to the success of his business.

Type of Engagement

HELiX Assessment. Executive support to evaluate team members, translate those evaluations into small changes to maximize productivity and profitiability.

Industry

IT (Software development)
Size: Small
Ownership: Privately Held
POC: CEO

Executive Wins

CEO was able to make small adjustments to the workflow, which significantly improved morale and productivity.

Team Wins

CEO implemented a new team-driven process that allows his team-driven staff to co-create solutions.

Growth Wins

Correctly deploying staff has allowed the company to grow by 100%+ over the two years since implementing HELiX.

About Us
